Notes from the Director...

At this point pretty much every director will say "things are going well", or "rehearsals are going well", or "the show is going to be great"...which is all TRUE for Beauty and the Beast.

We are super blessed to have Susan and Joanne with us for all of our rehearsals. Ken Dasher (the conductor) has also joined us. Kenny and crew have done a great job giving us set pieces to work with. The entire cast and crew are working VERY hard to bring it all together by show time.

Dates to remember

FRIDAY 10/28 – start packing up, taking the castle apart, etc....

SATURDAY 10/29 – MOVE TO WI HI...this is a huge show with a huge set. We need all the help we can get to pack it up, load it, move it, set it back up on the stage. Bring a friend, a drill, a truck... Questions or want to help? Text me—410-726-7615.

Synopsis

Something's Afoot is a musical spoof by Robert Gerlach that takes a satirical jab at the Agatha Christie "who dunit?" murder mysteries. Ten people are stranded in an isolated English country estate during a raging thunderstorm. One by one they are killed in mysterious (and hilarious) ways as they try to discover the murderer's identity. The situation is complicated by rising floodwaters, power failures and suspicious behaviors carefully noted by Miss Tweed, an elderly amateur detective.

Cast of Characters

The cast is a set of British stock characters typically found in the works of Agatha Christie. They are as follows:

- Lettie – "The saucy maid" (Cockney) age: over 18 – Mezzo-Soprano
- Flint – "The caretaker" (Cockney) age: over 18 – Tenor
- Clive – "The fussy butler" - age: over 50 – Baritone/Bass
- Hope Langdon – "The Ingénue" age: college age – Soprano
- Dr. Grayburn – "The family doctor" – age: over 50 – Baritone
- Nigel Rancour – "The black sheep nephew" age: 30-50 – Tenor
- Lady Grace Manley-Prowe – "The Grande Dame" age: 40-60 – Alto
- Colonel Gillweather – "The old army man" age: 40-60 – Baritone/Bass
- Miss Tweed – "The tweedy, elderly amateur detective" age: over 50 – Mezzo-Soprano

The Production Committee is looking for members! It's show time, again!

As Community Players Vice-President, Tom Robinson, is in charge of the Production Committee and he is looking for people to serve on the committee.

This committee is to receive titles of shows from potential directors and to read the scripts of the proposed shows.

Then the committee will meet to discuss the merits of producing each show (considerations include royalties, set expense, cast size, costumes, etc.).

The committee will then recommend shows for the 2017-18 season to the Board of Directors at the March 2017 Board meeting.

If you are interested in serving on the committee or would like more information before volunteering please contact Tom at tomchicken@aol.com or 410-422-0635.

You do not have to be a theater expert to serve – just be willing to read the scripts and discuss the merits of the shows that are submitted.

Potential directors and their immediate family will not be able to serve on the committee.

Want to direct a show?

If you are interested in directing a show for the 2017-18 season please contact Tom Robinson at 410-422-0635 or at tomchicken@aol.com.

We are looking for Directors for the 2017-18 season

Are you interested in directing a play? Are you not sure of all that is required to be a Director?

A potential Director will decide what play they would like to direct.

They are responsible for taking a script, a group of actors, an empty theatre, and a band of backstage people, bringing them all together and producing a fully-functional theatrical performance. The Director has the artistic vision for a play.

The Director will need to determine the approximate cost to produce the show (we have a template and people that can help you determine a budget), the dates they would like to do the show, and the availability of the show. The Director will need to have all of that information available for the Community Players Production Committee.

Once a show is selected by the Community Players Board of Directors, the Director will hold auditions to select the cast members. They will also select the stage manager and the technical crew (lighting, sound, costume designer, and set designer). On larger productions, there may be other supporting staff such as a producer, a choreographer, and a music director.

First and foremost, the Director is a leader. They direct the actors, offering guidance on character interpretation and dictating the subtlety of their performance. They also offer guidance and direction to the technical crew.

Directors determine the final pacing of the play as it comes to life on the stage. Once the show opens, the director's work is essentially complete.

Please consider becoming a Players' Patron

Patron support has made it possible to bring quality community theatre to our audiences for seventy-eight years. As we move into our 79th season, Patron support is crucial to help us maintain the same standards for future years. The Community Players can be proud of our tradition in great part due to the support of our Patrons.

Patron support begins with a yearly donation of as little as $ 75 at the Friend level and continues through the Legacy level with a donation of $ 2,000 or more. Each level Patron donor receives Season Tickets, special seating at Wicomico High School, and an invitation to our annual Patrons' Reception as well as an Honorary Membership to Community Players for the year.

There's always time to become a Patron of Players. If you're interested in donating to the future of community theatre, please contact us at communityplayers@cpoamd.com.

What is this?

Do you have any idea what this image is? Here is a hint—it is related to the first show of our season! If you can't figure it out, look on the page with the musicals quiz for the answer.

Children's Theatre Workshop

Now is the time to begin planning for the revitalization of our Children's Theatre Workshop for next summer. We have the facility and the space of our own where we can safely sponsor a learning activity for students who are interested in the theatre and performance.

If you have told me that you are interested in helping on this committee (or even if you haven't but want to help), please come to the first CPOS Children's Theatre Workshop Meeting on Monday, November 14, at 7 PM. We will plan to meet in the front meeting room since there will probably be a rehearsal in the big room.

If you are interested in being part of this planning committee but can't make the meeting, please contact Rusty at popirusty@comcast.net or 410-430-0423.

Save Our Oral History!!

Our historian, Bonnie Bosies, is doing a great job of putting our written and photographic history in order. We should all be doing as much as we can to help and support her in this never-ending task. But what about our oral history? Those stories, anecdotes, and memories that only exist in our members' minds. That part of our history is fragile and, with each passing day, we are losing it.

This is an invitation to those members who have been around for a while and have stories to share. Let's plan to get together on Saturday, November 19, at 7 PM at Players, and spend an evening sharing those stories and getting them down on paper or in a recording so that we don't lose them. Bring a snack to share and your preferred beverage! It's sure to be a party!

If you are interested but can't make this date, contact Rusty at 410-430-0423 or popirusty@comcast.net.
