The Drowsy Chaperone is a really upbeat and funny show

By Kel Nagel, Director

As this newsletter is being printed, The Drowsy Chaperone is getting finishing touches. The cast is ready to peak, the set is fantastic, and we are raring to go.

Players Night curtain will be Thursday, June 21 at eight. All members of Community Players are invited.

Please spread the word about this show to friends and family. I am sure everyone will enjoy it, and will appreciate the tremendous efforts put in by cast and crew.

Community Players is pleased to donate $312 to the Leukemia Society

Looking for help to organize our Costumes

By Lynne Bratten & Jenny Tusing

We plan to spend some time organizing and cleaning the costume areas this summer. But we can't do it alone. We need helpers that have good organizational skills. We can teach you how to measure and our sorting techniques.

If you have some time and would like to help out, please email jlbratten@gmail.com with your availability (weekends, weekdays, mornings, afternoons, evenings, etc.) and we will see what we can pull together. I would like to get 2-4 helpers so we can move quickly without getting too crowded. Thank you.

We are in need of empty coffee containers

Community Players is in need of empty coffee containers (preferably the plastic ones) for some organizing projects at the workshop.

Please bring any donations to the Nutters Crossing facility. If you have any questions please contact Kenny Johnson at kejohns@wcboe.org. Thanks!
